

Assistant Educator-Homer Day Camp (Summer 2019)

As an Assistant Educator for the Homer Day Camp during the Summer Season, help kids from Homer and beyond connect with the ecosystems of Kachemak Bay, become better stewards, and develop a love for the natural world. The Environmental Educator will work primarily with the CACS Day Camp, based out of Homer. Participants in this program are 6-10 years old. Each week (Monday-Thursday) of day camp features a different topic.

Duties include planning and leading activities, crafts, and games relevant to the weekly themes, administering basic first aid, comforting upset campers, developing a fun, safe, and positive group dynamic, leading beach and forest hikes, and assisting with training and coaching of interns and volunteers. Day camp activities are well-developed but provide ample opportunities for creativity and flexibility. Position requires experience leading and organizing young children or school groups; some familiarity with intertidal, marine, and forest ecology; good physical condition; patience, compassion, and enthusiasm; and ability to live and work in a residential setting with other staff. Alaska or similar experience and experience with early childhood education preferred.

Responsibilities:

- Assist as a day camp educator for participants at the Homer Spit, Beluga Slough, Bishop's Beach, Wynn Nature Center, and local trails
- Plan and lead games, activities, and crafts for participants relevant to weekly topics
- Assist with transportation of group in the 12-passenger van
- Help maintain a stock of snacks, first aid supplies, and craft materials
- Model positive interactions with the natural world and human communities, practice good stewardship and respectfulness, and lead stewardship activities
- Develop and ensure a safe, fun, and positive learning environment for participants
- Work cooperatively with other CACS staff and volunteers to provide the best possible experience for participants
- Set behavior guidelines for the group and maintain discipline as necessary
- Administer basic first aid and comfort homesick or otherwise upset children
- Keep track of attendance, required forms, and other duties as supervisor requires
- Correspond respectfully with parents and volunteers
- Submit written feedback on camp

Position runs from May 27th– August 23, 2019. $10.5-11.25/hour DOE + housing is provided. Contact Seth Spencer: jobs@akcoastalstudies.org for more information.
